Case No. 2012-0166

ORDER OF REVOCATION

By signing a Declaration concerning Surrender of Law Enforcement Officer Certification, received by the Kansas Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training on May 17, 2012, Jay S. Breeding voluntarily surrendered his law enforcement officer certification, pursuant to Commission policy.

At the time respondent surrendered his certification, the Commission had information indicating that a violation of the Kansas Law Enforcement Training Act had occurred, to-wit: Jay S. Breeding failed to meet the qualification requirement of a certified law enforcement officer, specifically moral character pursuant to K.S.A. 74-5601(a)(6), in that Mr. Breeding altered his tag on his personal vehicle to hide the fact that it had been expired for several months. In addition, Mr. Breeding lied to his supervisors about his concealment of his expired tag and his lack of liability insurance on his personal vehicles indicating that he had insurance when in fact he did not.

This Commission, having examined the files of the Commission's Investigation, finds that the surrender of respondent's certification should be accepted and the respondent should be decertified.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Jay S. Breeding's certification as a Kansas Law Enforcement Officer and his privilege to be employed as a law enforcement officer are hereby revoked.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the name of Jay S. Breeding be stricken from the roll of Kansas Certified Law Enforcement Officers contained in the Central Registry.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order be made public in accordance with the Kansas Open Records Act and Commission policy.

DATED this 27th day of June, 2012.
